

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES

VETERANS SUMMIT

DECEMBER 2, 2011 SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

Learning to Better Serve Those ★ Who Have Served

Please join us for an opportunity to better understand the needs of student veterans and how to support their successful transition to higher education and careers. The California Community Colleges are the number one destination for California veterans returning to civilian life and their numbers are expected to continue growing.

- Hear from California Secretary of Veterans Affairs Peter Gravett and other respected leaders in veterans services
- Learn from your colleagues who have established successful programs on their campuses
- Hear from student veterans about their community college experience

SUMMIT DETAILS

Reception: Thursday, December 1, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Summit: Friday, December 2, 8:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

Location: Holiday Inn, "San Diego-On The Bay"

Cost: $120 | $100 Summit only | $30 Reception only

TOPICS

- Academic credit for military experience
- Best practices in student services
- Mental health issues (post-traumatic stress disorder, traumatic brain injuries, re-acclimating to civilian life)
- Understanding military culture
- Best practices in veterans resource centers
- Federal, state, and local resources

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Counselors, veterans services coordinators, faculty, staff, administrators

REGISTRATION SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are available to cover registration for a limited number of participants on a first-come first-served basis.

TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIPS

Limited funds are available to offset travel costs for counselors and veterans services staff who would otherwise be unable to attend.

REGISTRATION

For more information and to register visit facc.org, or contact Silvia Flores at sflores@facc.org.

FOUNDATION for CALIFORNIA
COMMUNITY COLLEGES